MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Message From The Dean

Dean Dennis O. Lynch

Our fiscal year has ended and the Law School community has much to celebrate. The MOMENTUM campaign continues to generate enthusiasm and commitment in our community, especially among the School's loyal alumni and friends. Thanks to the generosity of those who are gratefully acknowledged in these pages, we are more than half-way to our campaign goal of $16 million, having raised over $9 million to date. These much-needed funds will help keep our School among the leaders in legal education in the United States.

Student scholarships continue to be our greatest need. Thanks to your support for scholarships, we will continue to attract and support the studies of the brightest and most deserving students, some of whom you will meet in these pages. Scholarship awards often make a life-changing difference for our students, who are extremely grateful for the generosity that makes this possible. I am especially pleased to note the creation of scholarships named in honor of our School's late law professors Robert H. Waters, Daniel E. Murray and Rafael Benitez. These enduring tributes reflect the continuity of our great Law School traditions, the faculty who perpetuate them, and the students, colleagues, alumni and friends who cherish this heritage. We are grateful to those serving on committees to establish these scholarships in honor of our beloved faculty and to all those who have committed gifts in support. If your education was enhanced through the work of one of these professors, please consider remembering him with a gift to a scholarship fund.

I also wish to thank the Miami legal community for its strong support. Several law firms have created new student scholarships in the firm name during this fiscal year: As you read about the law firm scholarships in these pages, please keep in mind that we invite all of you to join us in this endeavor. Law firm scholarships celebrate each firm's professional commitment and provide a lasting benefit to our students and our School. We are honored to be part of the Miami legal community and grateful to all those whose generosity helps us continue our shared tradition of excellence.

Campaign funds will also be used to enhance and support our innovative student programs: the Children & Youth Law Clinic, the Litigation Skills Program, Helping Others Through Pro Bono Efforts (H.O.P.E.), the Center for Ethics & Public Service, and the Professional Opportunities Program. These programs, and the dedicated faculty and adjunct professors who direct and assist them, enrich the legal education of our students and inculcate our strong commitment to public service. As you read about the important work of these student programs, please keep in mind that they depend upon gifts and donations to continue their endeavors. In these pages, we gratefully acknowledge gifts received to support these programs.

Again this year, it is my pleasure to welcome new members of the Dean's Circle, a group of alumni and friends who make an annual gift of $1,000 or more to the Law Annual Fund, to a scholarship fund, or to a programmatic activity of the Law School. We set a goal to increase membership in the Dean's Circle this year, and I'm delighted to report that your response has been overwhelmingly positive. Dean's Circle support is vital to maintaining excellence in legal education at the Law School. Our thanks to each new Dean's Circle member, each continuing member, and to those who have helped recruit new members for this important group.

We congratulate the Class of 1954 celebrating its 50-Year Class Reunion. The photograph on the cover of this publication embodies the strength of our School, the continuity of our traditions, and our shared commitment to excellence in legal education. We are proud of the recognition and accomplishments of all our Law School alumni and friends, our talented faculty, and our students.

I know you share our pride in our UM Law community. We thank each of you for the generosity and commitment that makes our School what it is today. We hope we can continue to count on your support. Please remember: every gift counts and every gift helps.

I look forward to seeing you in the coming year.

Larry J. Hoffman, Reunion Chair

In May, the Class of 1954 gathered to celebrate their 50th School of Law reunion. Although they found today's Law School a very different place from the school of their memories, the important things haven't changed. In the words of Professor M. Minnette Massey, who spoke on behalf of the law faculty, "The warmth, the love, the appreciation--that stays the same."

Dean Dennis O. Lynch described the Class of 1954 as "the bedrock of the Law School." As class members, family and friends reminisced over dinner in the Faculty Lounge on May 7, their stories recreated that special time in their lives and in the history of the School of Law.

Reunion Committee Chairman Larry Hoffman, acting as master of ceremonies for the evening, commented, "If you're like me, the Law School had a profound effect.... it totally changed my life."

Classmate Sheldon J. Schlesinger described how the 1950's at the School of Law was shaped by the post-World War II era. Many law students were returning veterans who had the GI Bill to cover educational expenses, but the money didn't go far. Schlesinger recalled that benefits approximated $1,500 per year, but Law School tuition was $500 per year, leaving little for living expenses. He bought used law texts—and when none was available for his civil procedure class, Professor Paul Barnes, former Florida Supreme Court Justice, lent Schlesinger his own book. Remembering rigorous classes, stimulating faculty, and great friendships, he concluded, "It wasn't a good Law School. It was a great Law School."

How did the Class of 1954 get into the School of Law? "We just walked over to the School and signed up," Schlesinger said. There were no entrance exams and no prerequisites. No undergraduate degree was required. And they had "the diploma privilege"—if they graduated by June of 1954, no bar exam was required to practice law.

U.S. Magistrate Barry Garber studied pre-med at Emory University for three years before being accepted at Yale Law School. "My friend said, 'What do you want to go to Yale for? If you go to Miami, you don't have to take a bar exam.' I enrolled the next day."

Morton Goudiss agreed that law school was better when "they just let you in and you had to prove yourself" without a bar exam. He recalled that class grades were posted by serial number in the old Law School building (the Merrick Building). For privacy, "You'd go out at night with a flashlight to check your grades," he recalled. Bill Ingraham even remembered his grade number: #3551.

Returning vet Gus Larson studied law for two years at the University of Pennsylvania before transferring to the University of Miami School of Law. "I learned more law [at Miami] than in the first two years [at Penn]," he commented. "I'm proud to be a graduate of this Law School."

Stanley Levine, former editor of the Barrister, said, "This is the first reunion I've ever been to. My heart is full of memories."

Larry Hoffman concluded by thanking his reunion committee members: The Honorable Barry Garber, The Honorable Allen Kornblum, The Honorable Murray Meyerson, Sheldon Schlesinger, and Murray Shear. During the planning for their 50th reunion activities, the Committee considered what the Class of 1954 could do for the School of Law that has given them so much. After discussion, the Committee proposed a student scholarship in the name of the class. "I view this as a good pay-back time," Hoffman commented. With student tuition now at $29,000 per year, the need for assistance to students is greater than ever. "We want to give opportunity to those who couldn't afford it," he continued.

Dean Dennis Lynch closed the evening with remarks about the crucial time when the Class of 1954 attended the Law School. "Although the School had its beginnings in the 1920's, the period when you were in school, the teachers who taught you were critical to shaping this Law School. The 1950's were the formative years and you are the bedrock of the School," Lynch said. The School of Law has succeeded beyond the dreams of its founders. "We now have 5,000 applicants for 380 seats in the first-year class, so we have a very selective admission process. Our students are very talented. Our faculty is nationally recognized for their scholarship", he continued. Lynch urged class members to think about the goals of the School of Law's current capital campaign and consider ways to give back to the school. "The Class of 1954," he concluded, "is an exceptional class."

A FITTING TITLE FOR A QUEST TO ELEVATE A HIGHLY REGARDED UNIVERSITY TO THE NEXT ECHELON OF EXCELLENCE!

With a public announcement last fall and a wonderful recognition event at the Convocation Center, the campaign for the University of Miami was launched. Momentum is a billion-dollar initiative to accelerate progress, empower learning and discovery, and intensify UM's impact on people in South Florida, across the country, and around the world.

The School of Law launched its own component of the Momentum Campaign—a $16 million effort—on November 14, 2003, at a special ceremony for the unveiling of the Richard A. Hausler bust at the Law School Quadrangle. The unveiling of his bust brought to our campus over 500 alumni and friends who came to celebrate his life, to attend the homecoming class reunion festivities, and to share in this momentous occasion—the launching of a new campaign.

The event was hosted by the Law Alumni Association, Bacardi, U.S.A., Gibraltar Bank, Southern Wine & Spirits of America, Inc., and Professor Hausler's favorite restaurant, Christy's in Coral Gables...who else!

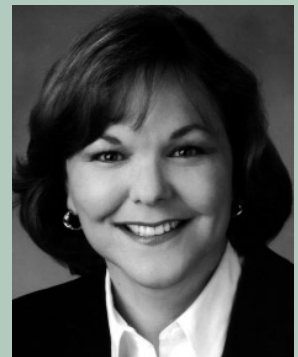

The program included remarks by: Dean Dennis O. Lynch; Joseph P. Klock, Jr., JD '73, former chair of the Richard A. Hausler Chair fund raising committee; Trustee Hilarie Bass, JD '81, Chair of the School of Law's Momentum Campaign; and Jennie Hausler on behalf of the Hausler family. You can view the photos and special presentation from the unveiling ceremony and campaign kick-off by accessing our Web site at www.law.miami.edu/alumni.

Dean of Students, Jeannette F. Hausler, JD '53 with granddaughter Madeleine; daughters Jennie Marie Hausler and Ellen Hausler McGonigal, and Reverend Patrick O'Neil

“The funds will be used to help attract and support talented students and faculty and to enhance our academic programs as well as contributing to the construction of a new high-tech skills training center which will house our award winning clinics. We are delighted to announce that as of May 31, 2004, the School of Law has obtained $9,132,169 in gifts and pledges, thus reaching 57% of the goal for this five-year campaign. We are grateful to our alumni and friends for their generous support of the School of Law and the Momentum Campaign.”

THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI

SCHOLARSHIPS HELP THE LAW SCHOOL ATTRACT TOP-NOTCH STUDENTS

Creating new scholarships and increasing the endowment level of existing ones help meet the rising costs of tuition. In order for the Law School to remain competitive with other schools in attracting top students, the following law firms have created scholarships. We are grateful to the following donors for their generosity and ongoing support:

The Abadin, Jaramillo, Cook and Heffernan Scholarship Fund will be awarded to an academically qualified second or third year student, who has excelled during his/her first year in law school and has demonstrated financial need. Preference will be given to students who have an interest in litigation and trial work and are committed to diversity in the legal profession.

The Armando Alejandro Endowed Scholarship Fund will be awarded each year to a mature second-year student who has had work experience and who demonstrates financial need. Preference will be given to an individual who has served in the armed forces or has had public service experience.

The Bilzin Sumberg Baena Price & Axelrod LLP Scholarship Fund will be awarded each year to an academically qualified first or second year student who has excelled academically based on his or her first semester in Law School.

The Joseph Isicoff-Isicoff, Ragatz & Koenigsberg Scholarship Fund will be awarded to an academically qualified student. The recipient will be selected based on his/her academic record and leadership ability. Preference will be given to a student diagnosed with Attention Deficit Disorder or other learning disabilities.

Wayne E. Chaplin, JD '82 Southern Wine & Spirits of America Charitable Foundation, Inc. established the "Chaplin Scholarship" to be awarded to an outstanding entering law student. The recipient is selected on the basis of merit, with preference given to a student with an interest in transactional work.

The Kenny, Nachwalter, P. A. Scholarship will be awarded to an academically qualified second or third year student who has excelled academically, has demonstrated financial need, and has expressed an interest in the litigation field.

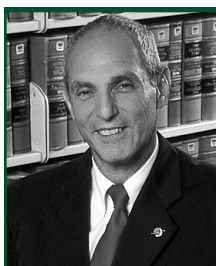

The Wicker, Smith, O'Hara, McCoy, Graham & Ford Scholarship will be awarded to an academically qualified second or third year student. The recipient will be selected based on his/her academic record and leadership potential.

The Parenti, Falk, Waas, Hernandez & Cortina Scholarship will be awarded annually to an academically qualified second or third year student who has expressed an interest in trial practice. The recipient will be selected based on his/her academic record and leadership potential.

The Dean's Circle

Richard C. Milstein,
JD '74
Chair, Dean's
Circle Committee

The Dean's Circle has had an outstanding year for 2003-2004. We were able to increase the size of the Dean's Circle to 351 members, and we raised significantly more money for the Law School than we had done in the past. On behalf of the Committee, thank you for your generosity and for your contributions. However, we can do better.

The percentage of members of the Dean's Circle and the percentage of donors to the School of Law is significantly lower than the average donors to law schools throughout the nation. The Dean's Circle gives each of us an opportunity to thank the University of Miami School of Law for being part of this profession and to grow as human beings as well. Together, we can continue to raise the level of support for the Dean's Circle, a vital source of funds for the School of Law. It is a long-term goal to establish an endowment fund that will provide annual revenue on which the School of Law can depend.

This support helps the School maintain student scholarships as well as many important programs, which not only assist in the growth of our Law School, but also help it remain one of the finest law schools in the nation. As alumni, we should all believe in the importance of our School of Law. Through our financial contributions, we are giving back to our community. Our Law School educates quality lawyers, contributes to an active and qualified judiciary, and acts as a resource to the community in a variety of ways.

We members of the Dean's Circle encourage those individuals who have not joined the Dean's Circle previously to make a gift this year and be part of this collective effort to enhance our history and our future.

We are grateful to the following 2003-2004 Dean's Circle Committee Members:

Membership in the University of Miami School of Law's Dean's Circle reflects a high level of commitment to the School and a shared vision for ensuring excellence in legal education.

By making an annual gift of $1,000 or more to the Law Annual Fund, Law School scholarships, or other programmatic activities, members help ensure that UM Law retains its place among the nation's leading law schools. Dean's Circle members receive invitations to exclusive events throughout the academic year, and a plaque lists each member's name on the Dean's Circle Donor Wall located in the lobby of the Law Library.

Dean's Circle membership also entitles you to recognition as a member of the University of Miami President's Circle. For alumni who graduated within the past 10 years, the annual giving requirement is $500 for recognition in the Protégé membership category.

HONOR ROLL OF DONORS 2003-2004

Honor Roll of Donors 2003-2004

Barbara Perez,
JD '93
2003-2004,
LAA Fundraising
Vice President

We officially kicked off the Momentum Campaign last fall, and, thanks to all of our alumni and friends, we are halfway to our goal!

Our judicial receptions in Dade, Broward and Palm Beach were great successes in large part because of our gracious and generous sponsors, Mellon United National Bank and Bacardi U.S.A., Inc. Mellon has once again agreed to sponsor and host our Dade Judicial Reception, so please mark your calendars for October 20, 2004. Last year over 400 judges, alumni and friends joined us in honoring our –hardworking and distinguished judiciary.

Please stay posted for announcements of other alumni events including Happy Hours and some new and exciting events we are planning for this coming year.

Lastly – but most importantly – WE NEED YOU! It is only through your participation and support that we can continue to work toward our goal of making the Law School one of the top in the country. Every contribution to our Annual Fund helps to achieve this goal.

This will be an exciting year, starting with the first Presidential Debate to be held at the University in September. I encourage you to make this the year you become involved in one of the many activities and events of the Law Alumni Association, and I urge you to make a gift – of any amount – to the Law Annual Fund, so that together we can make a difference in our Law School and our legal profession.

Thank you for your commitment and help, and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

Barbara Perez, JD '93
2003-04, Fundraising Vice President
Law Alumni Association

“I encourage you to make this the year you become involved in one of many activities and events of the Law Alumni Association, and I urge you to make a gift – of any amount – to the Law Annual Fund, so that together we can make a difference in our Law School and our legal profession.”

CLINICS AND SPECIAL PROGRAMS

CENTER FOR ETHICS & PUBLIC SERVICE

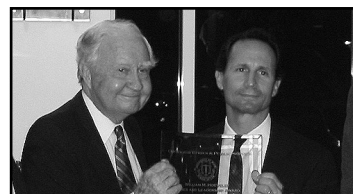

Founded in 1996, the School of Law's Center for Ethics & Public Service is an interdisciplinary clinic devoted to the values of ethical judgment, professional responsibility, and public service in law and society. The Center provides training in ethics and professional values to the Law School and the University, as well as to the Florida business, civic, education, and legal communities. The Center also provides health rights representation and economic development training to low-income communities.

CHILDREN & YOUTH LAW CLINIC

The University of Miami School of Law Children & Youth Law Clinic continued its eight-year tradition as a Law School Clinic serving the legal needs of poor children where students not only learn the law, they help make the law. The Florida Bar Foundation, along with other support, was indispensable to the Clinic in helping us undertake significant advocacy and achieve results of statewide importance for our clients.

Students and faculty in the Clinic engaged in cutting edge advocacy, expanding the constitutional and statutory rights of Florida's foster children in the state and federal courts. The Clinic trained present and future lawyers to provide high quality, compassionate and ethical legal services for impoverished children. Clinic faculty offered educational opportunities to more law students than ever, supervising 30 legal interns in the Clinic and another 50 students in three Law School courses: Children and the Law; Community Justice - Lawyering Skills and Ethics; and the Bar Foundation-funded Summer Public Interest Law Seminar in Children and the Law.

Donations received June 1, 2003 - May 31, 2004

“My participation as a Florida Bar Foundation public service fellow in the Children & Youth Law Clinic has enabled me to better understand the needs of under-served populations, such as foster children. This experience has fueled my interest in public interest law and it has provided me with wonderful role models in this area of practice. My involvement in this program will be a pivotal learning experience in my overall law school education.”

H.O.P.E. – HELPING OTHERS THROUGH PRO BONO EFFORTS

H.O.P.E. is the University of Miami School of Law's Public Interest Resource Center under the direction of Director Marni B. Lennon, JD '95. H.O.P.E. provides volunteer services and advocacy efforts on behalf of individuals and organizations in need. It creates opportunities for law students to utilize their skills and resources in an effort to enhance the quality of life of underserved populations residing in Miami-Dade County. Each year more than 300 students participate in over 4,000 hours of community outreach projects to benefit the homeless, children, immigrants, the environment and more.

During the 2003-2004 academic year, 12 H.O.P.E. Fellows served in local and international placements focusing on global advocacy initiatives, providing 286 active volunteers and over 4,000 hours of pro bono legal services to those in need.

PROFESSIONAL OPPORTUNITIES PROGRAM

Since 1989, the Professional Opportunities Program (P.O.P.) has provided numerous opportunities for black law students including funding for and placement of judicial interns, summer associate positions with local law firms and mentor relationships with local judges and attorneys. Through the cooperative efforts of the Dade County Bar Association Young Lawyers Section, the University of Miami School of Law, St. Thomas University School of Law and several Miami law firms, P.O.P. was developed to help black law students make a successful transition from law school to positions with Florida employers. In 2004, twenty-eight (28) students from UM and St. Thomas were placed through the program.

The donations of local firms and others, who collectively contributed over $15,000 this year, are vital to P.O.P.'s continuing growth. We gratefully acknowledge the support of the following contributors:

Message from Elizabeth S. Katzen

Elizabeth S. Katzen, JD '88, with H.O.P.E. Volunteers

On behalf of the University of Miami Law Alumni Association (LAA), I want to thank each of you for a successful year. The LAA accomplished our goals of bringing our students and alumni together to perform community service projects and network.

A great example of the alumni and students working together for the betterment of the community was the Habitat for Humanity Project that was put together by Darin Zenov, JD '97, and Patrick Mullane, JD '04. I thank you both for a job well done!

Our alma mater has several scholarship programs which benefit minority students and students who exhibit devotion to public service. We applaud these efforts.

The LAA's networking continues to expand geometrically. In fall 2003, we held the Miami-Dade County Judicial Reception, and in spring 2004, we held the Broward and Palm Beach Judicial Receptions. Additionally, we held Happy Hour gatherings in Broward, Miami and South Beach. The attendance has been overwhelming. Thank you for your participation, and please come back next year.

I want to thank Bacardi, U.S.A., Inc. Mellon United National Bank, and Gibraltar Bank for their generous support of the University of Miami School of Law and its alumni association. I also want to thank the Miami Daily Business Review and Sookie Williams for their continued support and coverage of our events.

The Alumni Association has worked vigorously to build communications with alumni to create a support system for students. Our message to the students is "we are here for you." The LAA is committed to assisting the School in providing a solid education and ethical base for our law students to enable them to be positive members of the legal community. We need your continuing support to accomplish these goals.

This year has been the icing on the cake for me. The University of Miami School of Law has given me the opportunity to have a wonderful life. Thank you for allowing me to serve as your president.

Warmest personal regards,

Elizabeth S. Katzen, JD '88

Message from Todd Payne

Todd Payne,
JD '89
2004-2005
President,
Law Alumni
Association

As the incoming president of the University of Miami School of Law Alumni Association for 2004-2005, I would like to take this opportunity to thank those of you who contributed this past year to the Annual Fund and to challenge those of you who did not support our effort: Please consider joining our alumni as a contributor for the coming year. The amount of your gift is not important. Our goal is to increase the number of alumni participating.

Annual giving is one of the cornerstones of alumni support. Your support helps the Law School provide the resources needed to improve facilities, provide scholarships, fellowships and other program initiatives, and generally improve the overall quality of our alma mater. Many institutions require their alumni to pay an annual membership fee to receive benefits such as using the Law Library, receiving alumni publications, CLE mailings, and invitations to alumni programs and events. At the University of Miami School of Law, our Alumni Association provides these benefits at no charge to all graduates of our Law School. We want to continue to provide you with these benefits and to encourage all of you to become active participants in our Alumni Association and in the life of our Law School.

Although we encourage you to become members of the prestigious Dean's Circle, we want you to participate at any level you can. Every contribution, no matter the amount, makes a difference and is appreciated! Our goal is to increase alumni participation by encouraging every one of our approximately 16,500 alumni to become involved in the life of our Law School. To quote the president-elect of our Alumni Association, Barbara Perez, JD '93, "Give us your change...to make a change...in the lives of our law students."

I encourage you to visit the Law School campus to see first-hand the changes and improvements at the School. The Board of Directors and I plan to continue the legacy of those who came before us by continuing to build on our mentoring programs, H.O.P.E. projects, fundraising and placement committees, and our alumni networking projects. I hope you will join me by becoming an active member of the University of Miami School of Law Alumni Association.

There are those who say that the only constant in life is change, yet the one constant at the University of Miami School of Law is the concern that our outstanding faculty and staff have for the students and alumni and their desire to meet the goal of achieving excellence in legal education at our alma mater. I ask that you take the time to get involved in any of the many projects your Association will plan for the coming year. I know that our Law School community will continue to thrive and advance the ideals of higher education and professionalism in law. I also know that with your support, the University of Miami School of Law will continue to rank among the best in the nation.

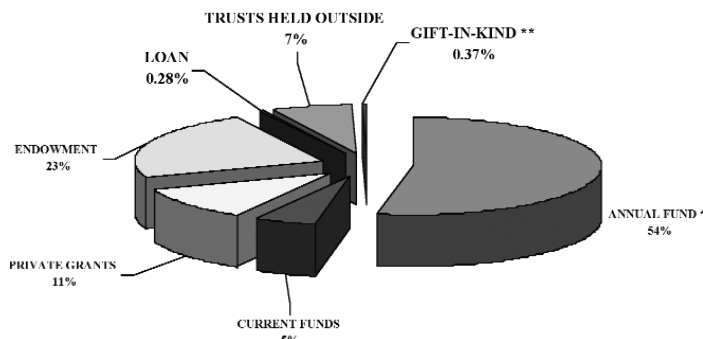

Warmest regards,

Todd S. Payne, JD '89

Charity that Ends at Home

Lucy Morillo
Executive Director,
Estate & Gift
Planning
(800) 529-6935

If you would like your philanthropy to make an immediate impact at the University of Miami School of Law while reducing the tax costs for your heirs in the future, a charitable lead trust may be just the plan you're looking for.

Many trust plans, such as charitable remainder trusts, are designed to pay income to you or your family before the remainder goes to a charitable organization like the University of Miami. But a plan that is often overlooked, yet highly useful, is a charitable lead trust that does just the opposite.

This trust pays out income to a qualifying charitable organization like the University for a number of years, but when the trust term is up, the principal goes to your heirs with reduced—or even eliminated—gift or estate taxes.

This is an outstanding way to transfer property to family members down the line (e.g., children and grandchildren) at a minimal tax cost, especially if you're well-to-do enough that you can forgo investment income on some assets.

To learn more about charitable lead trusts and their benefits, or other types of planned gifts which can pay you a lifetime income, please contact us at 202 D McKnight Bldg. 5807 Ponce de Leon Blvd. Coral Gables, FL 33146 or visit our website at www.miami.edu/estateandgiftplanning

FALL REUNIONS

To the Classes of 1955, 1964, 1974, 1979, 1984, 1994

Mark your calendar . . . it's time to celebrate!

Your class reunion is scheduled for Homecoming weekend - November 4-7, 2004.

Coming back to campus always rekindles old memories, and a reunion promises to be even more memorable. You'll see old friends, your former professors, and fellow classmates. It will be a wonderful time to share old memories and create new ones.

The success of your reunion will depend on the class reunion committee. Whether you are interested in participating in a committee or attending your reunion event, please feel free to call the Law Alumni Office at (305) 284-3470.

Go 'Canes!

Lewis J. Levey, JD '86
Vice President for Alumni Relations
Law Alumni Association

Homecoming Reunion Weekend, November 4 - 7, 2004
